CHED MEMORANDUM ORDER

No. 30
Series 2000

TO : CHEDRO Directors
Presidents, State Colleges and Universities
Heads, Private Higher Education Institutions
Heads, CHED Supervised Institutions

SUBJECT : HIGHER AND TECHNICAL EDUCATION WEEK
x=====

The House Committee on Higher and Technical Education with the support of the Office of the Speaker, in coordination with the Commission on Higher Education, Technical Education and Skills Development Authority and professional education associations is spearheading a Higher and Technical Education Week Celebration on October 2-6, 2000 at the Batasan Complex, Quezon City, with the theme, "Higher and Technical Education: Towards a Common Framework for Global Excellence and Competitiveness."

This undertaking will seek not only to project a positive image based on the specific accomplishments of Congress, particularly the House of Representatives, as the highest policy-making body of government, but also to highlight the achievements and other ventures of those tasked to ensure the effective management of tertiary and technical education in the country, including those that have been generated by private and public higher education institutions.

In this regard, all Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) both private and public particularly those at the National Capital Region (NCR) are enjoined to actively participate in the said event. Heads of HEIs, deans, faculty of HEIs and student council leaders, are invited to attend the opening ceremonies at the Batasan Complex, South Wing Lobby, House of Representatives, Quezon City and symposia scheduled on October 2, 2000 at 2:00 p.m. and October 3, 2000 at 9:00 a.m. respectively.

Attached is the tentative program of activities. For more information, please coordinate with CHED Deputy Executive Director Atty. Julito D. Vitriolo at Tel. Nos. 633-1980 and 636-1691, Dr. Isabel F. Inlayo, Director III, Office of Programs and Standards (OPS) Tel. Nos. 635-5828 or 638-4869 and Ms. Beatriz Sanga, Committee Secretary, CHTE House of Representatives Tel. No. 931-5795.

Full support and cooperation to these activities are hereby desired.
