A. INTRODUCTION

1. Background, Scope and Coverage

1.1. The Scholarships for Staff and Instructors’ Knowledge Advancement Program (SIKAP) Grant is an educational assistance program for Filipino faculty and personnel of higher education institutions (HEIs) who wish to pursue advanced studies and contribute in the enhancement of quality tertiary education instruction and delivery.

1.2. The SIKAP Grant Program is in accordance with Republic Act No. 7722 or the Higher Education Act of 1994 and Commission on Higher Education (CHED) Memorandum Order (CMO) No. 15 series of 2019 or the Policies, Standards and Guidelines for Graduate Programs.

1.3. The SIKAP Grant scholarship program covers incoming or existing graduate students. The applicant must undertake and complete her/his graduate studies in an eligible graduate program offered by any of the following:
   1.3.1. Autonomous / Deregulated Institutions;
   1.3.2. State Universities and Colleges (SUC) designated as Level III or higher;
   1.3.3. Center of Excellence (COE) or Center of Development (COD);
   1.3.4. A program accredited as or whose equivalent undergraduate program is accredited as Program Level III or higher; OR
   1.3.5. Mindanao State University (MSU) and its constituent units, or the University of the Philippines (UP) and its constituent units

1.4. As a scholarship program of the Commission, the SIKAP Grant is open to Teaching and Non-Teaching Personnel who are employed or separated from service/discharged within 12 months from date of application, including those under the basic or technical education divisions or departments, by any of the following HEIs:
   1.4.1. An HEI duly recognized by CHED; or
   1.4.2. An HEI duly recognized by the Ministry of Basic, Higher and Technical Education (MBHTE);
   1.4.3. Local Universities and Colleges (LUCs) with Institutional Recognition (IR) issued by CHED;

2. Definition of Terms

2.1. Deferred Repayment - The period of one (1) additional academic year for scholars who are unable to finish their degree within the allowable extension period. (See Section E, No. 5)

2.2. Delivering Higher Education Institution (DHEI) - An HEI approved to deliver graduate programs for scholars under the Program, and thus takes on the roles and responsibilities as stated in this policy, with a signed Memorandum of Agreement (MOA).

2.3. Full-time scholar - A scholar who undertakes full-time study.

2.4. Full-time study - The undertaking of a degree on a full-time basis without any teaching, work or administrative load for the entire duration of study, and takes on the full-time academic load of his/her HEI of study.

2.5. Grant Contract - A legal document entered into by the approved applicant, and the Commission in relation to the scholarship grant.
2.6. Higher Education Institution (HEI) - An institution of higher learning that is duly recognized by CHED or the Ministry of Basic, Higher and Technical Education (MBHTE) of the Bangsamoro Autonomous Region of Muslim Mindanao (BARMM).

2.7. HEI Personnel - personnel employed in a HEI who may be classified as:
   2.7.1. Non-Teaching Personnel - personnel performing functions in support of teaching and/or rank and file employees of the HEI.
   2.7.2. Teaching Personnel - personnel formally engaged in actual teaching or in research assignments, either on full-time or part-time basis.¹

2.8. Maximum residency - Period that a student is allowed to complete the program as provided in the admission and retention policies set by the DHEI.

2.9. Revocation of Grant - The rescindment of the award of the grant for approved applicants with or without executed grant contracts, and has not availed any privilege or incurred any cost in relation to the scholarship grant.

2.10. Sandwich Component - Thesis/dissertation writing to be taken by a scholar under a qualified program of a foreign educational institution.

2.11. Scholarship - the provision of educational assistance, through a grant contract, to a student to support the completion of study.

2.12. Study Duration - The duration of study for a particular graduate program. This may be categorized as:
   2.12.1. Adjusted Study Duration - The duration of study for a particular graduate program, which has been adjusted through an approval of a special request (e.g. Leave of Absence (LOA), Extension, etc).
   2.12.2. Original Study Duration - The duration of study for a particular graduate program, originally approved and reflected in the original study plan.

2.13. Study Plan - An official document which outlines the duration of study required to complete a degree program.

2.14. Termination - The cessation or cancellation of the scholarship grant due to non-fulfillment of terms and conditions of the grant, or through the willful abandonment of the degree program.

2.15. Withdrawal - The willful non-acceptance or abandonment of the grant, by an approved applicant or grantee
   2.15.1. Withdrawal leading to revocation - the non-acceptance of the scholarship grant as awarded, by an approved applicant.
   2.15.2. Withdrawal leading to termination - the withdrawal after the commencement of the scholarship proper.

3. Qualifications to become a SIKAP Grant Scholar

2.3. For the DHEI model, the following additional policy shall apply:

2.3.1. DHEIs that are unable to submit complete documents by the prescribed period may claim payment only through the Commission on Audit (COA) Money Claims process.\(^6\)

2.3.2. In order to ensure ease of process, it is preferred, but not required, for the DHEI and/or the grants administrators to open an account with the CHED AGSB. Otherwise, the DHEI and/or the grants administrators shall shoulder any interbank charges that may be incurred.

2.4. For the individual model, the following additional policies shall apply:

2.4.1. The financial privileges shall be released to the individual scholars on a reimbursement basis.

2.4.2. These shall be directly deposited to a savings account opened in a CHED servicing bank solely for the purpose of the grant, the details of which must be provided through a bank certificate.

\(^6\) Rule VIII of The 2009 Revised Rules of Procedure of the Commission on Audit
3. Terms and Conditions of Release and Availment of Scholarship Privileges

3.1. Only applicants who have been classified as eligible shall be entitled to receive scholarship privileges, provided that they have submitted all requirements to be recognized as a scholar or classified as an active scholar; see Section C. No. 5.1.

3.2. Scholars are entitled to the financial privileges during the term when their application was approved by the Commission. For Waitlisted Applicants, see Section B, No. 3.8 for further information.

3.3. Scholars must meet and consistently fulfill the following conditions to qualify and ensure continuous availment of scholarship privileges:

3.3.1. A valid grant contract (only for scholars who will receive the scholarship privilege for the first time);

3.3.2. Officially enrolled in an eligible graduate degree program stipulated in the approved original study plan and approved by the Commission. In cases where the specific courses may be interchanged under a specific classification, the scholarship shall only cover the number of units stipulated in the original study plan.

3.3.3. Prompt and timely submission of documentary requirements duly received by the concerned CHEDRO. These include documents required for the processing and release of financial privileges.

3.3.4. Must be classified as active or probationary, in accordance with Section B, No. 4.1.

3.3.5. Strict compliance to the following:

3.3.5.1. Admission and retention policies of the graduate degree program they are officially enrolled in;

3.3.5.2. Eligibility criteria throughout the duration of the grant;

3.3.5.3. Adherence to the original study duration or approved adjusted study duration;

3.3.5.4. Maintain good standing as a SIKAP Grant Scholar; and

3.3.5.5. Terms and conditions of this policy and other relevant issuances of the Commission.

3.4. Sandwich Component may only be availed through a CHED-approved partnership of a DHEI with an internationally ranked foreign HEI duly recognized by CHED and/or its counterpart.

3.5. The Commission may allow the application of a scholar for additional funding to other institutions or organizations, specifically, in support of the production of scholarly works and/or completion of the thesis/dissertation/capstone requirement of her/his degree program provided that it is NOT a duplication of the funding provided by the grant.

3.6. For scholars who started their study prior to the scholarship, the following tuition costs will be covered:

3.6.1. Actual costs of tuition and school fees from the term of approval of the scholarship and for the duration of the scholarship.

3.6.2. Enrolled subjects upon approval of the scholarship and contained in the approved study plan provided that the subject has not been retaken from the time the scholarship was approved.

3.7. Other modes of releasing the funds to the grantees shall be subject to the approval of the Commission.

3.8. All allowances and fees are subject to government accounting and auditing rules.

3.9. The financial privileges for scholars with coursework shall be in accordance with the study plan submitted at the start of the scholarship. In general, the study plan shall consist of:

3.9.1. Course work, according to the prescribed academic lead of the HEI,

3.9.2. Comprehensive exam, whether on residency or officially enrolled to be taken alongside with or without other academic subjects,

3.9.3. Thesis Writing for up to one (1) academic year, OR Dissertation Writing for up to two (2) academic years.
3.10. Should the thesis / dissertation extend beyond the stipulated academic year, scholarship privileges will only be limited to one (1) year for thesis writing and two (2) years for dissertation writing.

3.11. For new scholars under the thesis or dissertation stage, the grant shall be limited to one (1) academic year.

3.12. For scholars who have already received financial privileges and incentives during the academic term but went on approved LOA, the Commission shall deduct the amount already granted to her/his entitlement in the succeeding term/s.

3.13. Scholars who failed to submit the complete required documents for the disbursement of financial privileges within the stipulated deadline will be automatically placed under probationary status.

3.14. Scholars who do not submit the complete required documents for the disbursement of financial privileges for two (2) consecutive regular terms shall be automatically placed under non-compliant status.

3.15. In cases where scholars are approved while the term has commenced, the Commission shall only cover the following:

   3.15.1. Costs of tuition and other fees;
   3.15.2. Transportation and communication allowance;
   3.15.3. Book allowances for the term;
   3.15.4. Living allowance on the month of approval provided that it is approved within 20 days of the month of approval. In the event that the approval is made in less than seven (7) days from the end of the month, the living allowance shall commence the next month.

6. Process

6.1. Process for payment of scholars and DHEIs

6.1.1. The scholar / DHEI shall submit the documentary requirements to the CHEDRO for processing. The scholar shall ensure the regular and timely submission of the requirements for the claims of allowances.

6.1.2. The CHEDRO ensures that the documents submitted conform to the specifications of the policy, and that the scholars are eligible to receive the privileges based on the policy.

6.1.3. If the documents submitted do not conform to the specifications for the processing of allowances, the CHEDRO shall inform the scholar / DHEI in writing and request for the compliance of the same within fifteen (15) days upon receipt of the feedback. Failure to comply may be tagged as probationary or non-compliant status.

6.1.4. If the scholar is no longer eligible to receive the allowances due to their status of study and in accordance with the policy, the CHEDRO shall commence the appropriate process.

6.2. Process for availment of Research Support Grant

6.2.1. The CHEDCO shall set a deadline for the submission of proposals for the Research Support Grant, subject to availability of funds.

6.2.2. The scholar shall submit the documentary requirements to the CHEDRO for initial processing and review. The CHEDRO shall ensure:

6.2.2.1. The completeness of the documents

6.2.2.2. The costs in the WFP are within the generally accepted government accounting and auditing rules.
6.2.3. For the Research Support Grant, the CHEDRO submits the proposal for the vetting to (a) a technical expert for the content of the proposal, and (b) the administrative and financial unit for the financial aspect.

6.2.4. Based on the vetting of the region, the recommendations of the technical expert, and the administrative and financial unit, the CHEDRO shall prepare a report / recommendation for submission to the LGSC.

6.2.5. The CHEDRO shall submit the report for the review and deliberation of the LGSC.

6.2.6. If necessary, the LGSC may require the CHEDRO to conduct further vetting or inquiry.

6.2.7. The LGSC shall provide a recommendation to the Commission en Banc.

6.2.8. The Commission en Banc will issue the final decision.

7. Sandwich Component

7.1. Terms and Conditions

7.1.1. The sandwich component must be undertaken in a reputable foreign institution.

7.1.2. The sandwich component must not exceed a duration of one (1) academic year.

7.1.3. The sandwich component must not create any changes in the original study plan or the expected completion of the degree program.

7.1.4. The award of additional support for a sandwich component is subject to the approval of the Commission en Banc and availability of funds.

7.2. Documentary Requirements

7.2.1. Sandwich Component Request Form

7.2.2. Proof that the program is a CHED-approved partnership

7.2.3. Proof of international ranking of foreign HEI

7.2.4. Work and Financial Plan which clearly shows the duration of the Sandwich Component

7.2.5. For the DHEI Model, Endorsement of the DHEI through the GMO
